NURSING HOME ADMINISTRATOR EXAMINING BOARD

EXAMINATION INSTRUCTIONS

Applicants applying for the Wisconsin Nursing Home Administrators examination must file two (2) separate applications and fees.

I. FILING ELIGIBILITY APPLICATION WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF SAFETY AND PROFESSIONAL SERVICES (DPS):

All new first time applicants in Wisconsin must submit the following to the DPS to determine eligibility to sit for the examinations:

1. Request to Apply for Examination (Form #1573)
2. Fee
3. Request for CIB Information (Form #2375)
4. Verification of Licensure (Form #419) (This form is for reciprocal applicants only.)

Completed eligibility application materials and fee must be mailed to the Department at the address listed above. Eligibility applications hand-delivered or mailed by special courier must be delivered to the Department's street address: 1400 E. Washington Avenue, Madison, WI 53703.

You will be notified by the Department of your eligibility to sit for the examination.

Retake applicants must submit the Request to Apply for Examination (Form #1573) and the fee to DPS.

II. FILING SCHEDULING APPLICATION WITH PROFESSIONAL EXAMINATION SERVICE (PES):

Professional Examination Service (PES) will administer the National examination prepared by the National Association of Boards of Examiners for Nursing Home Administration (NAB) and the Wisconsin State Law examination. Applicants are encouraged by NAB to apply online for the examination at www.proexam.org.nab.

The cost to apply online is $375.00 for the NAB exam and $190.00 for the Wisconsin State Law exam paid by credit card. For applicants without access to a computer or an email account, a paper-based application form may be submitted to PES. There is an additional $75.00 fee charged by PES for submitting a paper-based application. Please contact the DPS at dsps@wi.gov if you need to complete the paper-based application form.

Retake applicants must submit the scheduling application and fee to PES.

IV. EXAMINATION REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSURE: (not required prior to examination)

The examinations will be taken on a computer through a Prometric Technology Center located in each state on a weekly basis. To take the computer-based examination, no prior knowledge of computers is needed. Before the examination begins, a simple introductory lesson explains the process of selecting answers and moving around in the examination. Applicants are given three (3) hours to take the NAB exam and one (1) hour and 40 minutes to take the State Law exam.

The Nursing Home Administrator’s licensure examination is a 2-part examination. The first part is the National examination prepared by the National Association of Boards of Examiners for Nursing Home Administration (NAB). The second part is the Wisconsin State Law examination. Applicants for initial licensure must successfully complete both parts of the examination. Reciprocal applicants who have successfully completed the NAB examination in another state are only required to take the Wisconsin State Law examination. The passing scaled score on the State Law exam is 64 and 113 on the NAB exam.

The content of the National examination can be accessed at either www.nabweb.org or at www.proexam.org.nab. The content for the State Law examination is listed on the next page of this form.

Wisconsin Department of Safety and Professional Services

VI. REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSURE BY RECIPROCITY:

The Board at its discretion and otherwise subject to laws pertaining to licensure of Nursing Home Administrators may grant a license as a Nursing Home Administrator to an applicant who holds a current license issued by the proper authorities in any other jurisdiction, which has not been revoked or suspended, upon payment of the fee and submission of evidence satisfactory to the Board that the applicant has satisfied all of the following:

1. Has a bachelor's degree in any field that was obtained from an accredited college or university or holds a current certification as a Nursing Home Administrator granted by the American College of Health Care Administrators;

Wisconsin Department of Safety and Professional Services

2. Has practiced as a Nursing Home Administrator for at least 2,000 hours in any consecutive 3-year period within the 5-year period immediately preceding the date of application for licensure;
3. Has passed the Wisconsin State Law examination required for licensure; and
4. Does not have an arrest or conviction record, subject to Wis. Stats . ss. 111.321; 111.322 and 111.335,. An applicant who has a pending criminal charge or has a conviction record shall provide the Board with all related information necessary for the Board to determine whether the circumstances of the pending charge or conviction substantially relate to the practice of nursing home administration.

Verification of Current Licensure (Form #419) must be completed by each state licensing Board or agency in which you hold a credential (license). A photocopy of the credential (license) is not acceptable.

An official transcript must be submitted with your application to verify your bachelor's degree in any field. If you have not received a bachelor's degree, you will then need to submit a current certification as a Nursing Home Administrator granted by the American College of Health Care Administrators at: 325 South Patrick St, Alexandria, VA 22314.

Along with your examination materials, you must submit evidence of having practiced as a Nursing Home Administrator for at least 2,000 hours in any consecutive 3-year period within the 5-year period immediately preceding the date of application. Please complete the enclosed Reciprocity Experience Record (Form #2470).

The Nursing Home Administrator license expires on June 30 of the even numbered year.

VII. ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR OBTAINING A NURSING HOME ADMINISTRATOR CREDENTIAL BY EXAMINATION: (this section applies only to initial licensure applicants, not to reciprocity applicants)

In addition to successful completion of the examination, Wis. Admin. Code. sec. NHA 4.01(1) requires an applicant to meet certain experience requirements to obtain a Nursing Home Administrator credential. You will be provided with the Application for Licensure (Form #418) and Verification of Experience in the Field of Institutional Administration (Form #71). You will be required to complete the forms and return to DSPS for processing.

An applicant for the examination is not required to have completed the experience requirement prior to taking the examinations. Upon passing the required examinations, an applicant must complete the following experience requirement according to the type of education completed:

Regular Course of Study: A successful completion of a supervised clinical practicum, which means work experience acquired in a nursing home in conjunction with the approved program (refer to the definition found in Wis. Admin. Code. sec. NHA 1.02(9).)

Program of Study: Successful completion of one year of experience in the field of institutional administration as defined in Wis. Admin. Code. sec. NHA 1.02(1).

Specialized Course: Successful completion of one year of experience in the field of institutional administration as defined in Wis. Admin. Code. sec. NHA 1.02(1).

The Experience is not required to be completed prior to taking the examination. Experience in the field of institutional administration is defined in Wis. Admin. Code sec. NHA 1.02(1).

The Nursing Home Administrator license expires on June 30 of the even numbered year.

Wisconsin Department of Safety and Professional Services

VIII. REFUND/POSTPONEMENT POLICY:

The refund and postponement policy for examination candidates is covered in Wis. Admin. Code sec. SPS 4.06.

SPS 4.06 REFUNDS

- (1) A refund of all but $10.00 of the applicant's examination fee and initial credential fee submitted to DSPS is granted if any of the following occurs:
 - (a) An applicant is found to be unqualified for an examination administered by the authority;
 - (b) An applicant is found to be unqualified for a credential for which no examination is required;
 - (c) An applicant withdraws an application by written notice to the authority at least 10-days in advance of any scheduled examination; or
 - (d) An applicant who fails to take an examination administered by the authority either provides written notice at least 10-days in advance that the applicant is unable to take the examination, or if written notice was not provided, submits a written explanation satisfactory to the authority that the applicant's failure to take the examination resulted from extreme personal hardship.
- (2) An applicant eligible for a refund may forfeit the refund and choose instead to take an examination administered within 18 months of the originally scheduled examination at no added charge.
- (3) An applicant who misses an examination as a result of being called to active military duty shall receive a full refund. The applicant requesting the refund must supply a copy of the call up orders or a letter from the Commanding Officer attesting to the call up.
- (4) Applicants who pay fees to service providers other than the Department are subject to the refund policy established by the service provider.

IX. PUBLICATION REQUEST:

You may access a copy of the Wisconsin Statutes and Administrative Code Relating to the Practice of Nursing Home Administrators on the Department's website

X. NAME AND ADDRESS CHANGE:

Any applicant scheduled for the examination that changes his or her name or address should notify DSPS and the PES.
